Kristen Pottle is a sought-after performer and teacher based out of Kensington PEI. Growing up in Fredericton, NB she developed her skills and passion for voice and musical theatre. Upon graduating she studied at the Randolph Academy of the Performing Arts in Toronto where she received the triple threat award for her graduating class. She has spent over 15 years performing in musicals across North America including: The North American Tour and Mirvish Production of The Wizard of Oz, West Side Story with The Banff Program/Citadel Theatre and Vancouver Opera, multiple shows with Stage West and Drayton Entertainment and eight seasons at The Charlottetown Festival in supporting roles and as Associate Director and Choreographer on several productions. In 2022 she toured with Alan Doyle in the Canadian Premiere of his musical Tell Tale Harbour. While performing Kristen developed a true love of teaching and has loaned her talents to various workshops, schools, festivals and studios across Canada. She approaches singing from a place of storytelling first and hopes to foster a love of music and performance in the next generation through her genuine love for the craft. Kristen is also a yoga teacher and owner of Blossoming Heart Yoga. She resides in Kensington with her husband and son Clark.

About the Festival...

The Truro Music Festival was started in 1922 by Professor Harry Wellard and his assistants Miss Margaret McLean and Miss Lois Richardson. Prof. Wellard was organist at several Truro churches, taught music at the Nova Scotia Provincial Normal College, and was supervisor of music in Colchester County schools. He was devoted to music in the community and was particularly interested in fostering its role in childhood education and development. His many achievements are honoured a century later in the annual Truro Music Festival. In fact, the Truro Music Festival is the third oldest competitive music festival in Canada, and in 2022 it celebrated it's 100th Anniversary - an achievement for which the community can be justifiably proud.
